

Norwescap Child & Family Resource Services presents:

Encouraging Positive Risk-Taking in Early Childhood

Join us for a practical training designed to help you foster healthy risk-taking in young children - an essential part of building confidence, resilience, and problem-solving skills.

Learn how to:

- Discover the developmental benefits of positive risk-taking
- Create safe, supportive environments for age-appropriate physical and social risks
- Encourage exploration, active play, and social interactions
- Walk away with tools and strategies to help children: Take on challenges, learn from mistakes, and grow into confident capable individuals!
