

Norwescap Child and Family Resource Services presents:

Art in Early Education

Virtual Training

September 24th

TIME: 6:30pm - 8:00pm

LOCATION: Zoom

COST: FREE

Join us!

This training will examine the role of art in supporting cognitive, social-emotional, and motor skill development for toddlers and preschoolers in early childhood education.

We will discuss designing art activities that encourage exploration, creativity, and developmental growth.

We will explore ways to use open-ended art materials to promote self-expression and learning.
